Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your Docket no. 5858/Ed:167, dated 22nd November 1897, observing that in case Ramaswami Iyengar, late Assistant master of the Maharani's Girl School, could not be provided with some small employment in the Muzrai Department he may be granted a charitable allowance from any of the Anna Chattrams, in consideration of destitute condition.

2. In reply I beg to state that Ramaswami Iyengar is over seventy years old and unfit for active service. I therefore offered him, more than a year ago, a daily allowance of one seer of rice from the Srirangapatam chattram. but he declined to accept the same, stating that the allowance was insufficient. I cannot grant him a greater allowance from the chattrams, as their funds are too limited even to meet the ordinary requirements of [illegible]
